Become a Training Officer

Choose the surf award you will teach and arrange the course and a mentor with the Chair of Education. Be 16 or older by assessment and hold the current, proficient surf award.

1

Arrange your pathway

Choose the surf award you will teach. Be 16 or older by assessment. Arrange the course and a mentor with the Chair of Education.

Finish check: you hold the current, proficient surf award.

2

Prepare

Complete Child Safe Awareness and Surf Risk Rating. Then complete pre-course activities 1–9.

Finish check: both completions and activities 1–9 are in your portfolio.

Find the current WA learner guide and portfolio

3

Complete the course

Attend the Training Officer course. Deliver your 10-minute teaching practical.

You need the current WA Training Officer award before probationary training.

Finish check: completed portfolio and WA Training Officer award.

learn.ncslsc.com/guides/become-a-training-officer
The printed guide links here. This page is always the current version.

TAF-02 · Club guide v2.1 (4 November 2026) · updated 4 Nov 2026

Sources and help

Sources: WA Training Officer learner guide and portfolio v2.2; probationary trainer logbook v1.5. Use the current official publisher documents.

Guide owner: Chair of Education. Reviewed 4 November 2026; next review 1 July 2027. Questions: enquiries@ncslsc.com.

Email the club education contact

Part of

Training Officer award pathway

SLSWA Training & Education

Trainer? Open in the Hub (sign-in needed).

4

Train with your mentor

Observe every topic across at least two full courses. Deliver sessions, then deliver three assessed lessons.

Finish check: signed logbook entries and lesson reviews.

- At least two full courses, with every topic observed
- Three assessed lessons on different topics or in different settings
- At least three candidates in each assessed lesson
- A score of 5 or 6 in every criterion for all three lessons
- Three final lesson plans, with reviews and mentor sign-off

Find the current probationary trainer logbook

5

Sign off and submit

Get your mentor's competency sign-off. Give your logbook to the Chair of Education for SLSWA processing.

Before teaching alone, check the award is on your official record.

Check your awards and transcript